Hollywood Riviera Woman Appointed Employee Education Chairman

The appointment of an employee education chairman, Mrs. Davis Cochran of Hollywood Riviera, for District Eight of the American Cancer Society has been announced by Mrs. Robert N. Stapleton, district chairman of volunteers, also of Hollywood Riviera.

District eight consist of eighteen cities including: Torrance, Lomita, Hollywood Riviera, Harbor City, Gardena, Rolling Hills, Waveria, El Segundo, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Redondo Beach, Hawthorne, Inglewood, Playa del Rey, Westchester, Palos Verdes and Portuguese Bend.

EDUCATION
"In this assignment, Marge Cochran will be working with our District Volunteer Education Chairman, Richard J. Lescoe, M.D. of Torrance. Her committee's efforts will be directed towards education of employees in local firms," announced Mrs. Stapleton. "This will include offering free literature and posters to the companies plus promoting our free life-saving film programs for employees."

Mrs. Cochran has been a motor corp driver for the Red Cross and a charter member of the Las Vecinas Club. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran are members of the Civil Air Patrol, an auxiliary of the Air Force which does local rescue work plus train young cadets.

"Our Employee Education Committee is excited about this new aspect of the American Cancer Society's education program," stated the new chairman, Mrs. Cochran. "We know that with the cooperation of local firms we will be able to educate many more citizens to cancer's danger signals and the importance of preventive medicine. Any local resident or firm who wishes to know more about this new program should call me at FR 5-5279 or the district office of the society, OR 2-8148.

First of Three Student Concerts Played Friday

A capacity crowd assembled in the Torrance High School auditorium last weekend to hear the first of three concerts planned by the Torrance Unified School District for the current school year. The Elementary Music Festival for the central area was under the general organization of music teacher Neil Short.

Orchestras, bands and various other instrumental groups presented a variety of numbers ranging from Bach's "Minuet in G Minor" to Ed Jurey's "Dixie Showboat." Students from Arlington, Greenwood, Madrona, Magruder, Anza, Wood, Adams, Steele, Flavian and Towers elementary schools enrolled in the regular instrumental program comprised the various groups who entertained. Numbers were directed by music teachers Neil Short, Jerry Andrews, Merlyn Anderson, Frank Snyder and George Knights.

DANCE BAND
Selections by the Torrance High School Dance Band under the leadership of George Knights was an added attraction. A similar concert will be presented at South High School on Friday, March 9, 8 p.m., where students from Calle Mayor, Hillside, Jefferson, Hickory, Meadow Park, Newton, Parkway, Riviera, Seaside, Sepulveda, Waveria and Victor schools will perform.

On Friday, April 13, elementary students from Lincoln, Casimir, Carr, Hamilton, Perry, Crenshaw and Madison schools will present a concert at the North High School gym at 8 p.m.

Woman's Club

"When Irish Eyes are Smiling" is the theme for Torrance Senior-Junior Woman's Club fashion show to be held at the Fish Shanty on March 17.

A social hour is to be held from 12 noon to 1 o'clock; luncheon to be served at 1 o'clock and the fashion show to follow.

Helen Morgan shop is providing the fashions, commentator is Ann Zior of the modeling school. The models will be from both junior and senior clubs and the modeling school.
